Hello, I'm Chris.
My grandmother is a beekeeper.
In her garden there are five coloured beehives
In each beehive there are lots of bees that produce very good honey
I like bees because they're very intelligent insects
Sometimes on Saturday mornings I help my grandmother.
I like collecting honey and putting it in glass jars Then my grandmother sells honey at the market in town. When I grow up, I want to be a beekeeper like my grandmother
